

DEAR WORLD

You may have seen Dear World's work, as over 150,000 people have taken a Dear World photo since we began after Hurricane Katrina in New Orleans.

We are most known for our distinct portrait style where each person, after working with the Dear World Team to narrow down & create their story, a story only they can tell, writes a meaningful line from that story on their body. Luminaries like ESPN's Stuart Scott, Super Bowl Champion Drew Brees, and Nobel Peace Prize winner Mohammed Yunus have been photographed by Dear World in this manner.

The mission of DearWorld.com is to help organizations build cultures of authenticity, inclusivity, & purpose. Clients include Accenture, UBS, Home Depot, and Southwest Airlines. At the end of each year, the company donates a portion of its profits to DearWorld.org.

Dearworld.org is the 501c3 organization born out of DearWorld.com. At DearWorld.org, we tell the stories of our time. Our work has been seen by tens of millions, been published in more than 30 countries, and has supported hundreds of people as they tell their meaningful stories. These include Boston Marathon bombing survivors, rescued child slaves, Orlando Pulse Nightclub survivors, and most recently COVID-19, Critical Care Nurses.
