OUT OF THE BOX

I see myself and others more or less as we are—as People

IN THE BOX

I see myself and others in a systematically distorted way—others are mere Objects
"SELF-BETRAYAL"

1. An act contrary to what I feel I should do for another is called an act of "self-betrayal."

KNOWING THE MATERIAL

• Self-betrayal leads to self-deception and “the box.”

• When you’re in the box, you can’t focus on results.

• Your influence and success will depend on being out of the box.

• You get out of the box as you cease resisting other people.
LIVING THE MATERIAL

- Don’t try to be perfect. Do try to be better.

- Don’t use the vocabulary—“the box,” and so on—with people who don’t already know it. Do use the principles in your own life.

- Don’t look for others’ boxes. Do look for your own.
• Don’t accuse others of being in the box. Do try to stay out of the box yourself.

• Don’t give up on yourself when you discover you’ve been in the box. Do keep trying.

• Don’t deny that you’ve been in the box when you have been. Do apologize; then just keep marching forward, trying to be more helpful to others in the future.

• Don’t focus on what others are doing wrong. Do focus on what you can do right to help.

• Don’t worry whether others are helping you. Do worry whether you are helping others.
